ESMT jumps 26 places in Financial Times MBA ranking 2015

- ESMT ranked 63rd in top 100 full-time global MBA programs
- ESMT among the top 10 in the world for “value for money” and “aims achieved”

In its second year in the ranking, ESMT European School of Management and Technology in Berlin has moved up 26 places to be ranked 63rd worldwide in the Financial Times MBA 2015 ranking of the top 100 full-time global MBA programs (2014: 89). The ESMT program is ranked 4th globally for “value for money” and is among the top 10 for “aims achieved,” the extent to which alumni fulfilled their goals for getting an MBA degree.

“We are particularly happy to see the great career progress of our graduates who finished their MBA three years ago,” said Nick Barniville, Associate Dean of Degree Programs at ESMT. “I am also proud to see the two business schools in Germany both making it into the top 10 in the world for value for money.”

In 2014 the Financial Times also ranked the ESMT Executive MBA and executive education programs in the top 30 worldwide. In September 2014 the international business school launched a new Master’s in Management program which will become eligible for ranking in 2019.
