ESMT Berlin in Top 15 of The Economist global EMBA ranking 2018

ESMT Berlin has been ranked 14th globally in this year's The Economist "Which MBA?" ranking of EMBA programs. The ranking shows that 82% of the ESMT EMBA graduates have been promoted or grown their own company since graduation, placing ESMT 5th in this category. ESMT was also ranked 7th in the students' rating of culture and classmates.

The ESMT EMBA in Berlin is an international 18-month part-time program. Participants, comprising mid- to senior-level managers, meet in Berlin for intensive six-day modules every two months, beginning in October each year. Two international modules, the Global Network Week and the International Field Seminar, take participants abroad for networking and academic exchange. The program targets those who have an interest in creating long-term, sustainable competitive advantage for their companies through innovation, technology, and a global mindset.
